Our Trusty and Well-beloved The Agent General for Our Colony of Queensland in London and The Honorable John Douglas Esquire, Companion of the Most Distinguished Order of St Michael and St George.

Whereas an International Health Exhibition is to be held in the City of London during the present year, One thousand eight hundred and eighty-four. And it hath appeared to us to be expedient to appoint Commissioners to act on behalf of Our Colony of Queensland in all things connected with the aforesaid Exhibition, Now, therefore, Know Ye, that We of Our Special Grace have thought fit to appoint and we do hereby appoint you the said Agent General for Our said Colony in London and you the said John Douglas Esquire, to be Commissioners for Our said Colony of Queensland to represent Our said Colony at the said Exhibition and to manage and conduct all such matters and things as may be necessary to be managed or conducted on behalf of Our said Colony in relation to the said Exhibition or to things which may be entrusted to your charge for Exhibition thereof. And we do hereby require you to report to the ^{Chief Secretary} ~~Government~~ of Our said Colony under your hands what you shall do in the premises.
