First Assignment Know Ye that we have assigned you and each and every of you Our Justices to keep Our peace in Our Colony of Queensland and its Dependencies, either alone or in conjunction with one or more of Our Justices that have been appointed on or since the first day of July One thousand eight hundred and sixty or hereafter shall be appointed in Our said Colony and its Dependencies, and to keep and cause to be kept, all Ordinances and Statutes for the preservation of the peace and for the quiet rule and government of Our people, made in all and singular their articles in Our said Colony and its Dependencies, according to the form and effect of the same, and to punish all persons offending against the said Ordinances and Statutes, or any of them, in the said Colony and its Dependencies; and to cause to come before you, all those within Our said Colony and its Dependencies, who to any one or more of Our people concerning their bodies, or the firing their houses, shall have used threats, to find security for the peace or their good behaviour towards us and Our people. And if they shall refuse to find such security then them in Our prisons, until they shall find such security, to cause to be safely kept.

Second Assignment We have also assigned you, either alone or with any one or more of such Justices appointed, or to be appointed as aforesaid, to enquire the truth more fully by all lawful means by which the truth of the matter shall be better known of all and all manner of felonies, perjuries, trespasses, or extortions, whatsoever, and of all and singular other crimes and offences of which the Justice of Our peace may or ought lawfully to enquire by whomsoever and after what manner-soever, in the said Colony or its Dependencies done or perpetrated, or which shall happen to be done or attempted. And also of all those who in the aforesaid Colony or its Dependencies, in Companies against Our peace, in disturbance of Our people, with armed force have gone or rode, or hereafter shall presume to go or ride. And also of all those who have, there lain in wait, or hereafter shall presume to lie in wait to maim or cut, or kill Our people. And also of all Victuallers and all and singular other persons who, in the abuse of Weights and Measures, or in selling Victuals, against the form of the Ordinances and Statutes, or any of them therefore made for the common benefit of the said Colony and its Dependencies, and Our people thereof have offended or attempted, or hereafter shall presume, in the said Colony or its Dependencies, to offend or attempt. And also of all Sheriffs, Constables, Keepers of Gaols, and other Officers who, in the execution of their Offices about the premises or any of them, have misbehaved themselves, or hereafter shall presume to behave themselves rudely, or have been or shall happen hereafter to be corrupt, remiss, or negligent in Our aforesaid Colony or its Dependencies. And of all and singular articles and circumstances and all other things whatsoever that concern the premises, or any of them, by whomsoever and after what manner-soever in Our said Colony or its Dependencies done or perpetrated, or which hereafter shall happen to be done or attempted in what manner-soever. And to inspect all indictments whatsoever so before you, either alone or in conjunction with such Justice or Justices aforesaid taken or to be taken or before others save Our Justices of the peace in the aforesaid Colony or its Dependencies, made or taken and not yet determined. And to make and to continue processes thereupon, against all and singular the persons so indicted, or who before you, hereafter shall happen to be so indicted until they can be taken, surrender themselves or be outlawed. And to hear and determine all and singular the felonies, perjuries, trespasses, extortions, unlawful Assemblies and indictments aforesaid. And all and singular other the premises according to the law and Statutes of England and of the said Colony and its Dependencies, as in the like case it has been accustomed or ought to have been done. And the same offenders and every of them for their offences by fines, ransoms, amerciaments, forfeitures and other means as according to the law and customs of England or the forms of the Ordinances and Statutes aforesaid, it has been accustomed or ought to have been done.

done to chastise and punish. Provided always, that if a case of difficulty upon the determination of any of the premises before you shall happen to arise, then let judgment in no wise be given therein by you, unless in the presence of one of Our Justices of the Supreme Court of the said Colony. And therefore we command you, that to keep the peace, or Ordinances, Statutes and all and singular other the premises you diligently apply yourselves and at certain days and places duly appointed or to be appointed for these purposes, into the premises you make enquiries, and all and singular the premises hear and determine and pass on, and fulfil them in the aforesaid form, doing therein what to justice appertains, according to the Law and Custom of England, being to us the amendments and other things thereto belonging. And we command Our Sheriff of the said Colony, at certain days and places duly appointed, or to be appointed as aforesaid, to be aiding by all lawful means, in the performance and due execution of the premises.

In Testimony whereof we have caused these our letters to be made patent and the Great Seal of the Colony to be thereunto affixed.

Witness Our Trusty and Well-beloved Sir George Ferguson Bowen Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George Captain General and Governor-in-Chief
